London July 8th 1824

Right Rev<sup>d</sup> & very dear Sir - I must write in reply to yours received this morning of the 6th from Sir J. Adair. altho' it can only be very hastily that does not signify much - I thank you <sup>so</sup> greatly for telling me freely what you - the blankets must be had. I have the command of money tho' not of my own & I can & will pay for them & happy to do so - I shall, I doubt not get the money made up. tho' I need not fix how at present. I know that Lady Hope will enter into it. altho' I may not mention it & be unminded in short I know I can get it done some way. & they must be had. let Mr.
Wiggins get them as you propose & let me know how I can send him the money. - I shall mention it to her one. so you may perfectly trust me. I am very ignorant about transacting money matters. but should think Mr Wiggins will easily manage for me to send the money to him. I hope this will reach you with him. I have only a few minutes before the post.

Thank you again I am Sir best? as you do - you know not how thankful I feel to have the hope of aiding what may do good opposite the glory of God. I will write again but can only now add being with the greatest regard Most truly & faithfully Y<sup>r</sup> ob<sup>d</sup> serv<sup>t</sup> Duff Macfarlane.
